

About Your Destination and Amenities

Thirty minutes from Liberia's new international airport, Peninsula Papagayo welcomes you with unprecedented beauty. Formed by volcanic activity and sculpted by wind, rain and sun, this jagged pair of peninsulas reaches into the warm waters of the Golfo de Papagayo, and is further protected by the deep blue lap of the Pacific. This pristine stretch of land has formed 15 miles of coastline, 14 miles of bluff edges, 31 separate beaches of white, coral, gray and black sands.

Part exclusive resort, part wonderland, this former backpacker's haven, fulfills a dream envisioned by the Costa Rican government more than 25 years ago: to introduce this paradise to a sophisticated, international audience.

This Villas are Situated in the Central time zone in the Guanacaste region of Costa Rica. Located 30 minutes from Liberia's new international airport. 2,300 acres features 15 miles of coastline, 14 miles of bluff edges and 31 separate beaches.
